Preface

This manual illustrates how feed companies certified according to a QS-recognized standard that want to make use of the QS recognition can register themselves in the QS database. Serving as an example for all screenshots used in this document is a certification according to GMP+. A list of all other standards recognized by QS can be found in Annex 10.1 (Recognized standards) to the Guideline Feed Sector.

Initial registration:

On the following pages you have the opportunity to register as a QS scheme participant.

How does the initial registration work?

For registration in the QS scheme you have to pass six steps:

- 1. Step: Selection of the stage
- 2. Step: Enter the address data of the company
- 3. Step: Enter the data of the legal representative
- 4. Step: Enter the data of a contact person for the company
- 5. Step: Enter the data of a crisis manager for the company
- 6. Step: Enter the data of at least one location of your company and select the certification body which is supposed to audit you
- 7. Step: Enter the data of a contact person for the location (optional)
- 8. Step: Enter the data of a crisis manager for the location (optional)

Finally, your data will be stored and transferred to the QS head office.

Then:

- You receive a confirmation with the login details sent to the email address of the legal representative (QS-ID and password for QS-database).
- You contact the certification body which you chose in step 6 and arrange an audit date.>

2 Eight steps for initial registration

Summary
Enter an additional location

Next>

If you want to register an additional location, please enter the location data as described for steps 5 and 6. For the allocation number, please enter a "2", as it is a geographically different location.

If you want to register an additional production scope at the same location (geographically identical location, e.g. with feed material as well as compound feed production), please enter the location data as described for steps 5 and 6. For the allocation number, please enter a "1". Since it is the geographically identical location with therefore equivalent location data, you can alternatively transfer the location data entered at the beginning of the initial registration process by clicking "accept previous location data". Please make sure that the allocation number is identical to the one from the first registration process. Locations with the same allocation number receive the same location number which is automatically assigned by the QS software platform.
